

This is your invitation to come and play with your Red Hat Sisters once again. The Spokane Red Hat Convergence Sept. 9, 10, & 11th is a weekend packed full of surprises, entertainment, vendors, give-aways, good food and FUN.

This party gets started on Friday nite with a Hippie Theme so dust off those sandals and dig out the tie dye shirts and raggy jeans. Comedian Susan Rice will be our main attraction that evening.

Saturday afternoon we begin with a short Hattitude stroll to Riverfront Park which is a stones throw from the Doubletree Hotel. As we enjoy our box lunches we will be serenaded and also do a little singing along.

Saturday evening we step back in time to the elegant Victorian Era. We will learn the subtle language of the fan while dining on more great food. Our headliners of the nite will be the Singing Sons of Beaches. They are a mix of comedy and song. For those of you who have seen them before you know what a treat you are in for.

Sunday Morning is our traditional P.J. Breakfast. After some more entertainment and prizes we say "ta ta for now".

There is so much more planned to do and see at the Convergence. For more detailed information and forms check out our website:
